Learning and enrichment for everyone over 50

Technology's Impact on Us Guest Speaker prospectus

This is a course being offered at the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute – UOD (Wilmington's campus - Arsht Hall) during the spring 2011 semester.

The catalog description:

TECHNOLOGY'S IMPACT ON US

Tuesday: 12:30 pm–1:45 pm

Hosted by: Joe Horwitz, Tom Del Pesco and William Pearson

Guest speakers will enlighten and demonstrate changes in technology and their impact on how we live, work, and play. Topics will include changes in energy, medical, financial, entertainment, and communication fields. This is an informative and fun course with no prerequisites.

Our mission / Objectives:

Our objective is to enlighten our audience and invite you the presenter to have fun. Our venue is the University of Delaware's – Wilmington campus. Our audience is a selection of the University of Delaware Lifelong Learning ~3000 highly educated members.

Useful information:

All course sessions are held on Tuesday's at 12:30 p.m. – 1:45 p.m. (75 minutes). Guest presentation is approximately 45-60 allowing 15 minutes or more for Q&A. Your audience will be educated seniors who will ask pertinent questions that add to your presentation.

Topics may be specific or general, covering the speakers' technology experiences to date or specific to an industry. Many guest speakers have teamed up with associates for the presentation. We offer two guidelines; be informative and HAVE FUN.

We have excellent AVI equipment; overhead projectors, PC & Mac computers with Internet access all with the latest software. Many presenters bring their personal laptop or a USB (flash) drive and use the schools computers to aid their presentation. In house computers will have access to the internet while laptops may not unless you are associated with UD.

Room 225 has a seating capacity of 60.
